Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free lots of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business, and a legitimate business should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Weddings, marriages, funerals or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, read of the paper, $5.00. The LEDGER will charge 10¢ per line, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, is a concession.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or church exercises, which must be inserted free.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for short notices in this paper is 10¢ per line. A line is defined as ten words. The LEDGER will not accept any notice for less than 10¢. The notice must be paid for in advance. If any one can find a daily paper printed at a lower rate than this, we will be glad to exchange.

Larger Circulation.

Original Reading Matter.

We will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as in former ones.

Regular meeting of DeKaib Lodge, I. O. O. F., this evening.

Mr. Edward P. Forman has been appointed a storekeeper-gauger.

Major James Hendrixson the painter is able to be out after a severe illness.

Sands & Furner have the contract for an artesian well at the pulley factory.

R. H. Pollitt has sold his Third and Wall street grocery to J. W. Nicholson.

Before going to the Fair call and see the pretty hats and headgear at Mrs. L. V. Davis's.

Miss Annie Hudson, who was injured a few days ago by a fall at her home in Aberdeen, is improving.

Rev. Fred D. Hale of Owensboro has decided to take that European trip, and will leave in about one month.

Yesterday was "Pension Day," and one attorney is credited with having prepared 160 vouchers for old soldiers.

There were fully 450 persons at Rutgers Campground Sunday—the largest crowd in the history of the meeting.

People with hair that is continually falling out, or those that are bald, can stop the falling and get a good growth of hair by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

Mr. Thomas P. Hopper has sold his interest in the firm of Bierbower & Co. to Mr. Albert Shuman of Mayville, who with his family will move at once to this city.

Mr. Asa Boyce, who is a resident of the Dayton Soldiers' Home, is seriously ill, and his son, Mr. Thomas P. Boyce of this city, left yesterday afternoon in answer to a telegram.

Miss Anna L. Cartwright came in from Rutgers Campmeeting yesterday, en route to Urbana, O., from whence she will go to Lakeside to participate in the Campmeeting at that place.

The illustrious Order of the Red Cross was last night conferred upon a class of three by Mayville Commandery No. 10, K. T.—Companions Will G. Heiser, Newton Foster and D. C. Yazell.

The motor car that on Wednesday broke an axle, jumped the track, rooted up the sidewalk and tore down several panels of fencing for H. Cox & Son is again in service. The damage to the car was about $25.

The Augusta Canning Company has sold the remainder of last year's put up of tomatoes, consisting of 48,000 cans, at 70 cents per dozen, delivered on the cars. The cannery will put up some apples this season as an experiment.

Jesse Cimer, aged 6 months, died Saturday night and was buried Sunday. Deceased was a child of the unfortunate Mrs. Brown who was so badly burned by falling in the fire at her home in the Fifth Ward last spring, and who is now in the Hospital at Cincinnati.

Mr. W. C. Miner was in Cincinnati yesterday afternoon and witnessed the big fire at the foot of Broadway which destroyed the steamers Carrollton and Big Sandy and the two huge wharfbuoys, an account of which will be found in THE LEDGER's telegraphic service.

There was a genuine scare at Rutgers Campground yesterday forenoon. A gasoline stove set fire to a cotton screen belonging to Mr. M. P. Wallingford, adjoining the cottage of Miss Fannie Bierbower, and for a few minutes it looked as though the cottage was doomed. Fortunately the fire was put out with only slight damage.

The funeral of the late ex-Mayor Edwin E. Pearce was largely attended yesterday afternoon. The religious services were conducted at the residence of his brother, Mr. E. L. Pearce, by the Rev. E. G. B. May of Newport, and at the grave the ritualistic ceremonies of the Oddfellows were observed. Peace to the ashes of an honest and clever man.

Mrs. A. R. Bourne, last year associated with Miss Alice Lloyd as Principal of the Madison Female Institute, and who recently accepted the chair of Primary Mathematics and English in Kentucky University at Lexington, and who is now in Europe, has written the Trustees of the College tendering her resignation. She states that she desires to stay in Europe for a year or so before returning home. Mrs. Bourne is the first lady member chosen to the Faculty of the University.

President John W. McGarvey of Lexington will preach an ordination sermon at the Dover Christian Church on the morning of the second Lord's Day in August, at which Brother McGarvey, assisted by the Elders of the Orangeburg and Dover Christian Churches, will set apart Rev. W. S. Smith to the Ministry, and also set apart some Elders and Deacons to the work of the office to which they have been elected. Brother McGarvey will also preach in the evening. The writer is safe in saying that President McGarvey is one of the ablest preachers in the land. All who can should avail themselves of the opportunity of attending these most instructive and helpful services.

The new Lodge of Oddfellows at Helena is meeting with deserved encouragement. THE LEDGER learns that five applications for membership have been received. Young men of good health and of good moral character should, of all others, join the Order. They will thus have assurance of protection from want and tender care when old age comes to them.

At a meeting of the Committee on Arrangements for the coming District Convention of the Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor, to be held in this city from the last Friday until the last Sunday in September, it was decided that each member of the committee make out a program, present it at the meeting to be held Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in Y. M. C. A. Hall, and from all the programs presented a suitable one will be formed for the convention, which will be one of the best ever held in this city.

Attention, U. R. K. of P. Regular meeting this evening at 7:30. Important business.

CHARLES PHILIP DIETERICH.

His Unexpected Death at an Early Hour This Morning.

Charles Dieterich is dead!

What a forcible reminder of the uncertainty of life and of the absolute sureness of the end that awaits us all!

A trifle more than a week has passed since the writer was one of a pleasant party, and Charles Dieterich was another.

No man in the assembly was more genial, and few gave promise of longer life, as the sum of human existence is figured out.

It may well be doubted if there was a man in Mayville more universally known than Charles Dieterich.

And to know him was to like him—for only those who were close to him fully knew the kindness of his nature and the goodness of his heart.

An affectionate husband and father, a good citizen and neighbor, a loyal friend, Charles Dieterich will be mourned by the entire community, and his genial disposition will long be a delightful memory.

Charles Philip Dieterich was born in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, and came to this country in youth.

He took up his residence in Mayville some forty years since, and had long been the head of the well known firm of C. P. Dieterich & Bro., Nurserymen and Florists.

His illness was of short duration, being an affection of the heart. Although complaining for some days of not feeling well, it was not until 11 o'clock last evening that the symptoms became alarming, and at 1:10 this morning he breathed his last, aged 56.

A devoted wife and three children—Miss Anna and Messrs. Henry and Frank Dieterich—survive.

Mr. Dieterich was a member of the City Council from the Sixth Ward, and had been a member of DeKaib Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., since June 17th, 1882.

The funeral will take place from the residence, 1240 East Second street, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, under the auspices of the Oddfellows, and the interment will be at Mayville Cemetery.

HISTORIC MANSION.

The Old Marshall Home at Washington Being Repaired.

Miss Mary W. Marshall is having the old Marshall mansion at Washington repaired. This is a historic place in a great many respects.

In the cemetery adjoining lie the mortal remains of Colonel Thomas Marshall and his wife, the father and mother of the great Chief Justice.

Colonel Marshall commanded a regiment of Virginians during the Revolutionary War, and was the intimate friend and adviser of Washington, who gave him the credit of saving the day at the great Chief Justice.

His son Thomas built the house in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

C. AND O. TRAIN SERVICE.

The Excellent Service of That Popular Throughfare.

During July the through trains on the C. and O. made a splendid record.

No. 1 arrived at Cincinnati on time thirty times; ten minutes late once.

No. 2, F. V. V., arrived at Washington on time twenty-nine times, and fifteen minutes or less late two times.

No. 3, F. V. V., arrived at Cincinnati on time twenty-nine times, and less than thirty minutes late twice.

No. 4 arrived at Washington on time thirty times, and less than thirty minutes late once.

HEADQUARTERS AT MAYSVILLE!

This City Will Be the Masonic Center For Three Years.

The members of Mayville Commandery who will make the pilgrimage to Boston will leave on Friday morning, August 23d, breakfasting at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati, and leaving soon after for Cleveland by the Big Four.

They will be special escort to Right Emminent Sir Warren Larue Tuxen, Deputy Grand Master, who will at Boston be chosen Grand Master—the highest Masonic position in the world.

Hence, for three years to come, Mayville will be the headquarters for Freemasonry in the United States.

THE MAYSLICK MOUNDS.

Notes from "The Ledger's" Ambassador to That Locality.

A cornucopia, perfect as to shape, &c., was found by the diggers the other day, showing that these people had some idea of agriculture.

The diggers at the Indian mounds have entered work at a new mound, and are meeting with more success than at the start.

The mound diggers struck "paying dirt" Saturday afternoon. They had five perfect skeletons exposed at one time, and photographed them all together as they lay.

A great crowd visited the Indian mounds Saturday and Sunday, and their curiosity gratified by seeing the skeletons of five Indians entire, among them one baby.

Indian mounds are scattered all over this country, and since those near Mayville have been opened, others near Washington, on the Fox place, and at Mr. Gill's, are being dug out.

THE LEDGER's correspondent will visit the Indian mounds again this week and lay before our readers something more on this interesting topic.

MAYSVILLE—FLEMINGSBURG.

Our Boys Win a Good Game For Their Hometown.

The Locals and several enthusiastic "rooters" went to Flemingsburg yesterday to play an exhibition game of ball, and it was a sure enough exhibition game.

Upon arriving at that place the boys found there were not enough players who knew the game to make it interesting for the people, so they split the Mayville team. Reiman, McGann, Keenan and Hellemann playing with the Flemingsburg and VanWinkle, Cox, Wadsworth, Wellner, Tenley, Hilleary and several of the "rooters" composing the Mayville team.

It was an eleven-evening contest, the "Flemingsburg" boys giving the Mayville team a chance to win, but they wouldn't, and Captain McGann went in and batted out the victory.

Reiman, McGann and Keenan did the work in the box for their side, each one taking turn about, while Wellner, Hilleary, Wadsworth and Tenley were for the Locals, the score standing at the close 13 to 12 in favor of the Flemingsburg team.

SHORT STOPS.

Dan Mahoney, the jolly big fellow who caught for the Senators while in this city, has been released by them.

The Locals left this morning for Ashland, where they play two games, returning to Vaneburg Thursday for a game.

The Cincinnati Reds will be here Friday of this week for another defeat at the hands of the Locals. Captain Ewing says he is going to come to Mayville this time with the strongest team it is possible to rake together, and he also says he is going to win; but we say no, as the Locals know the game too well. In connection with the game yesterday's Enquirer says:

"The Cincinnati will go to Mayville next Friday and wipe out the stain of the defeat that they sustained the last time they visited this thriving Kentucky city. Some of the Reds claim that they were given the worst of the umpiring the last time, and they will insist on a regular League umpire this time. Captain Ewing says that a good stiff semi-professional team, backed up by a slick home umpire, is too much of a handicap even for a League team. They want to test the strength of the Kentucky team under fair conditions. All they want is a fair deal. The outcome of the game at Mayville next Friday will be awaited with considerable interest." The Reds got a square deal here before, and they'll get another Friday. But wonder if Buck thinks our ball boys and Manager Watson were born yesterday? There'll be two umpires.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM!

Driftwood Gathered and Split for Ledger Patrons.

New river is falling at Hinton and the Kanawha marks a fall of 3 at Charleston.

No material change has occurred in the stage of water and the river is falling its entire length.

The H. K. Bedford has a crew that is equal to any in point of nicknames. They have "Chicken Dan," "Ed. Zip," "Chief Justice Chase" and "Kansas Mike."

Charles Elmore, 35, a deckhand on the towboat Joe B. Williams, mysteriously disappeared off the boat while under way.

He was last seen on the boat between Cincinnati and this city. He shipped at Paducah. Elmore has a wife and several children at that port.

The Joe B. Williams met with a mishap at Brush Creek on her way up with a large tow of empties. During a wind storm Saturday her tow was strung out and she was blown on a rock, knocking a hole in her hull. The damage was slight and the tow repaired, but the boat and tow are laid up for the present.

The last report of the Big Sandy river, the result of a cloud burst and continued heavy rains in the upper Big Sandy valley, has been most disastrous to the boating interests of not only the Big Sandy but the Ohio river. A bar of sand has been formed at the river's mouth that extends entirely across the Ohio, and presents at a better stage of water a shallower condition than ever before experienced in the memory of local rivermen.

A good rain is badly needed now throughout the county, as the corn is just in a condition to suffer for want of it in a day or so at the farthest.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would injure the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in coin is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.

We favor a tariff as regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market to the producer and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the protective tariff. We believe that such a system will defray our Government expenses, gradually liquidate all our indebtedness, restore public confidence and relieve to the rear the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its denunciation of the old tariff system and its refusal to take any action to restore it, we believe that the Republican party is more fully qualified to regulate the financial system of the Nation.

We favor an American policy which will protect American and American interests in any part of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignorant monarchies.

DURING the first eight months of the McKinley Law we imported from foreign countries 1,098,380 dozen eggs. During the first eight months of the present Democratic Free-trade Tariff Law we have imported 2,150,047 dozen. How do you like that, ye farmers wives of Mason county?

DURING the first eight months of the McKinley Law we imported from foreign countries 25,420 tons of hay. During the first eight months of the present Democratic Free-trade Tariff Law we have imported 192,357 tons. How do you like that, Mr. Mason County Farmer?

SPRINKLING in 1842 in the House in favor of an increased duty on hemp to keep out foreign hemp and encourage our Kentucky farmers, JAMES B. CANNAN said that the increased import duty on hemp demonstrated that "An additional duty was absolutely necessary to check its further progress, unless you wish to give the growers of the article in Russia an exclusive monopoly of our market in preference to our own farmers. The additional duty is moderate; it is no more than a protective duty in favor of our own agriculture."

There was not a word said about placing duty on agricultural products for revenue nor for "revenue only." Quite the reverse.

THE PADDLERS.

Ten Thousand of Them Will Have Their Wages Raised.

The Best News in Many Years for the Employees of the Mills.

The Benefits of This Increase Will Accrue to at Least Thirty Thousand Fishermen. The Paddlers Will Get an Advance of 25 Cents a Ton.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 6.—Ten thousand paddlers will have their wages raised. Later the benefits will accrue to at least 30,000 fishermen.

The biggest wage advance of years has been voluntarily given the union paddlers through the action of the Shenango and Mahoning valley manufacturers. That district, the Sixth, makes the price for the country generally. The paddler will get an advance of 25 cents a ton. They are now receiving $4 a ton, which is the base price for boiling in the amalgamated scale.

The advance will affect about 3,000 paddlers in the Pittsburgh, or First district, and correspondingly raise the wages of the piers south and east and everywhere where there is an organized iron mill.

This advance is the best news the paddlers have had in a decade. His wages have dwindled away from $8 a ton to a maximum rate of $3.25 a ton as a minimum in this district, and this will make clearing news that will be heralded with joy in thousands of homes. As the rate goes into effect Monday an advance of $1 a ton in the paddling rate will have been made within six months, something without precedent in the history of the Amalgamated association.

A CONFLAGRATION.

The Steamers Carrollton and Big Sandy Burned at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 6.—A disastrous fire broke out at the wharf Monday afternoon, and in the space of an hour the steamers Carrollton and Big Sandy and their landings were burned to the water's edge.

Once more the ranks of the fire department was attacked, and at least one of the laddies, it is feared, will sacrifice his life at duty's call. He lies on a cot in the city hospital, suffering the tortures known only to those who have been stricken by fierce heat.

In his brave efforts to nip the blaze in the bud, Supt. Sheldene, of the Cincinnati wharfburn, suffered painfully burned hands.

The list of injured is as follows: Fireman Bennett, engine company 4, overcome by heat and driven insane; Superintendent William R. Shaw, burned about hands and neck; Jack Crowley, burned about hands, neck and arms; Fireman William Kibby, of No. 10, back hurt, deaf and dumb; fireman on Big Sandy, hands and head burned.

The loss to the Cincinnati wharfburn is $30,000. The Cincinnati and Louisville Mail line wharf, with freight, is a loss to the amount of $8,000. The Big Sandy wharfburn is damaged $2,000. The steamer Big Sandy is valued at $10,000 and is owned by the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line Co.

The steamer Carrollton is a total loss, value $10,000, also being comparatively a new boat. Jack Crowley, clerk on the Carrollton, had his neck, hands and side burned and lost all his clothes on the boat. He is ashore in a borrowed shirt and trousers.

MOUNT TACOMA.

Word Received From the Exploring Party by Carrier Pigeon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—A special train from Tacoma says: "Homing pigeons sent out with mountain climbers returned Sunday afternoon with messages stating that Fred R. Cowden, H. Fries, E. A. Lynn, Wm. Love, Walter M. Bosworth and Fred Evans, nearly all experienced mountain climbers, had been badly frozen in attempting to reach the summit of Mount Tacoma. Messages state that the wind is blowing a gale. Pigeons were released at a height of 15,000 feet at a point known as the 'Camp of the Clouds.' Love is reported incapacitated but Bosworth has climbed to the summit repeatedly, had at the hour the messages were attached to the birds (5 o'clock Sunday morning) persisted in crawling to the tip top in order that Lynn, a local photographer, might make photographs of the crater for the purpose of comparing them with others taken last season, in order to see if any changes have taken place in the summit as the result of reported eruptions."

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN
WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And is it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives or friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
